

Living Globally Locally!

2011 ICS & CGC RETREAT

August 26-27, Skyline Gym, Branson, MO ⁸⁻¹⁹

Retreat Purpose: How does passion for Jesus GLOBALLY affect us LOCALLY? It's our theme: "Living Globally Locally."

The Retreat is the FIRST WEEKEND of SBU Fall classes at SBU and will be at the gym facility of Skyline Baptist Church in Branson. Intercultural Studies and the Center for Global Connections (formerly Missions Office) are together sponsoring this weekend of global challenge. Any student who has a heart and commitment to missions is welcome to come. It will be great fun, new friendships, worship and talking about global and local issues. There will be breakout sessions for lots of discussing.

Cost: Only $20. For this you get 4 great meals, snacks, and the new ICS/CGC T-shirt.

Transportation: Most will carpool from Redford parking lot, leaving Friday 3:00. Those with cars, please invite others into your car, and riders, please help your driver with some gas money.

Directions: Hwy 13 South to Springfield. East on I-44. South on Hwy 65 to Branson. Exit at Shepherd Hills/Hwy 248 and turn right. Continue on this road (Gretna Road which will become Hwy 165) past the intersection of Hwy 76 to Skyline's gym. Enter into gym area just beyond the main entrance.

What to wear and bring: Bible, notebook, knee-length shorts, toiletries, sunscreen, modest swim wear and towel. We may sleep on the floor, so bring some bedding. The gym has showers.

Guests will include: Rob and Alicia Olmstead (EastAsia), Rachel Weigand (EastAfrica), Norm Howell (formerly Papua New Guinea), Nick and Brittany Eilert (EastAsia), James Gleaves (New Tribes), Glenn Ginder (Frontiers), Whitney Prewitt (Sudan) and others.
