*MIAA Conference Match

AUGUST 28, 2008 • 4:00 PM • AIGNER FIELD • OAKLAND CITY, IND.

After a warm-up scrimmage with Drury last week to fine-tune their game, the Bearcats hit the road on Thursday to open their 2008 season against Oakland City University, located in Oakland City, Indiana. The Mighty Oaks are members of the NCCAA (National Christian College Athletics Association) and had a 5-9-0 record during the 2007 campaign. This is the first meeting between the schools.

During the 2007 season, the Bearcats were 9-8-3 overall and 8-5-1 in the MIAA. Last November, they reached the finals of the inaugural MIAA tournament, before losing in the 87th minute to Truman State, 1-0. This season, SBU fields a team which, according to head coach Benjamin Wade, "...promises to be even more diverse and exciting than 2007's team." Their 2008 schedule is particularly favorable between the dates of September 20 and October 16, when they get to play 8 of their 9 matches at home.

"The #1 thing to know about this team concerns our returning starters," said SBU's Wade. "We only have one player (#21, Sr., Aude Lechat) who will be starting in the same position as last season. We'll be trying many different schemes, combinations, and formations to find the right chemistry."

"I'm excited about our match with Oakland City. Their head coach, Christian Serino, and I go way back. He and I worked together at SBU, and have even known each other a lot longer than that. Everyone's looking forward to getting our season going with a very good Bearcats team."

RECENT SERIES

First ever meeting between the two teams.

LATEST ACTION

The SBU Bearcats, finalists in last year's MIAA Tournament, have been picked 5th in the MIAA coaches preseason soccer poll.

SBU returns four starters from last year's 9-8-3 team, which finished 8-5-1 in the MIAA.

SBU's head soccer coach, Benjamin Wade commented: "To be honest I'd much rather begin the season ranked in the middle of the pack and finish at the top - than to be ranked at the top, and finish in the middle."

The MIAA postseason tournament has been discontinued to allow flexibility in scheduling the double round-robin regular season slate. The team or teams with the best regular-season record will be declared MIAA champions.

The MIAA will compete in the South Central Region along with the Lone Star Conference and Heartland Conference in 2008.
