SBU's Rachel Sawyer led the Bearcats in kills, with 15. Brianna Wallace had 40 sets in the victory.

SBU then defeated Tarleton State (20-25, 25-23, 30-32, 25-19, 15-11) to close out their 4-match classic in Texas. SBU's Kelsey Stewart recorded a SBU-high 18 kills.

SBU moves to 3-1 on the season, and plays Rockhurst on September 5 in Bolivar in their opening game of the SBU Tournament.

SBU BEARCATS (3-1) AT SBU BEARCAT CHALLENGE

SEPTEMBER 5-6, 2008 • BOLIVAR, MO.

BOLIVAR, Mo. -- The SBU Bearcats, off to a 3-1 start to the 2008 volleyball season, return to Bolivar this weekend to play 4 matches in the first-ever SBU Tournament. It's the first time since 2002 that the Bearcats have been 2 matches over .500. That season, SBU got off to a 4-0 start, but finished the season with a 10-24 record.

"We had three nice regional wins this weekend," said SBU's head coach, Kelly Richardson. "We really set the tone for the weekend in the 3-0 win against Kingsville. And even in our loss against Trinity, we were right there at 14-11 in the final set, but couldn't hold on to it. We really learned from our mistakes and took the opportunity to grow from that experience the following day against Incarnate Word and Tarleton. Against Incarnate Word, for example, we played five sets with them and were actually down 11-13 in the 5th set. But we came back and won 16-14. We had a key point in that set where we desperately needed a key pass to go on offense, and they had a very good server up. Shyrah (Perry) stepped in and nailed a pass and enabled us to get our offense going."

"Rachel Sawyer stepped up, took charge, and really wanted the ball all weekend. She was in double-digit kills in every match we played. And Bri (Wallace) really made some extremely smart set selections, especially when some of the matches were on the line."

"Our team, generally, really played with confidence. In the matches we were down, we were able to come back and finish. I felt we came back with more than just a 3-1 record. We came back knowing that we could finish matches, even if we were down."

"We have a very competitive weekend coming up here in Bolivar. We'll have to keep up some of the good things we did in Texas, but also improve in the areas that need some work. It will be a good chance for our fans here in Bolivar to come out and watch us a few times."

The Bearcats will play Rockhurst (3-1) on Friday at 11:00, then Arkansas Tech (4-0) later that day at 4:00. On Saturday morning, SBU hosts Texas A&M Commerce (2-1) at 10:00 then will close their four-game weekend with Missouri S&T (2-2) at 5:30 that afternoon.
