BLOCKING IT UP THE CHARTS

Junior Arthur Trousdell has 25 blocks on the year and needs just three more to break his total from last year. With 52 career blocks, he is third on the all-time career list, just behind David Henderson.

Senior David Henderson had two blocks vs. Washburn and puts him at 32 blocks on the year. He now has 56 career blocks, which is good for second place.

He is tied for third place and needs eight blocks to move into second place for blocks in a season. He is tied with John Massey. Ian Pinder is second with 39 blocks. David Harris is #1 with 164 blocks in one season.

WHAT A CAREER

Senior David Coutchie has played his last game in a SBU uniform. It has been announced that his injury to his hand will not heal before the end of the season. Coutchie played his last game against Missouri Southern on January 17th and scored 17 points. He is the only player to play all four years for Darin Archer.

He ends his career with 914 points while playing in 91 games which averages out to 10.0 ppg. He also has made 328-722 shots from the field (.454). He made 137 career three-pointers, which is good for third place all-time. He also attempted 349 shots from beyond the arc, good for third place all-time. He also finished with 239 rebounds.

The Coaches

Southwest Baptist

Ron Nunnally - Interim Head Coach

Nunnally has been a part of the SBU men's basketball program for four years. He came on Coach Archer's staff in 1999 as a student assistant and then in the 2000 season he was promoted to an assistant coach. Nunnally graduated from SBU in 1999 but played basketball for CMSU where he was part of the 1984 National Championship team. In the championship game, Nunnally scored 38 points and was named the MVP. He went on to play professionally in Australia and Malaysia. He won his first game against Missouri Western on January 24th. He now has a 2-11 record with his second win coming over Truman State.

Missouri Southern State University

Robert Corn

Corn is in his 15th year at MSSU and is the assistant athletic director for alumni relations and development of the MSSU athletic program. He had a 224-170 overall record heading into the 2003-04 season and was the 1999-2000 Division II Bulletin National Coach of the Year, MIAA Coach of the Year, and the NABC South Central Region Coach of the Year. He is the only MSSU coach that has been with the basketball team since they joined the MIAA in the 1989-90 season. He led MSSU to their first MIAA regular season championship and second MIAA Tournament championship in the 1999-2000 season. He also guided them to the Elite Eight in the NCAA Tournament. He is a 1978 graduate of MSSU.

LAST TIME OUT

Southwest Baptist

After making it a close first half and only being down by two at halftime, SBU could not keep up with #6 Washburn in the 86-67 loss. A 26-8 run in the beginning of the second half put SBU away for good. David Henderson led SBU with 17 points..

Missouri Southern

MSSU held onto their six-point halftime lead to knock off Emporia State, 95-91 and move into fourth place in the MIAA. Four players were in double figures with two that scored 20 or more points. Darrell Redmond had 25 points while Hiram Ocasio had 21 points.

ARCHER RESIGNS

Due to ongoing health concerns, men's basketball head coach Darin Archer has resigned his position as head men's basketball coach. Assistant Coach Ron Nunnally will take over as interim head coach.

Archer coached in nine games this season with his final game being against Northwest Missouri State on December 30th.
