UP NEXT

This week will be a challenge for SBU as they face two top 15 teams in Central Missouri State and Washburn. SBU takes on # 13 CMSU (8-6/1-2) on Wednesday and then faces # 10 Washburn (13-1/2-1) on Friday. They finish the weekend on Saturday night vs. Emporia State (13-1/1-1).

BOB (BIG 'OL BLOCKS)

In the last four matches, SBU has combined for 33 blocks. They had 10 combined blocks vs. Arkansas Tech with Whitney Stare recorded seven blocks. Jennifer Clymore had five assisted blocks vs. Missouri Southern. On the year, SBU has recorded 133.5 total blocks as Stare has 66 total blocks.

PUTTING IT TOGETHER

In the losses to Missouri Southern and Arkansas Tech, SBU won game one and then played a tough game two but would lost by two points. The intensity fell in game three and four as they lost the match 3-1. In their matches this past weekend, SBU dropped games one and two but played well in game three.

After losing game one to Henderson State, the Bearcats almost won game two but lost 34-32

Head Coach: Leslie Howe (Angelo State '98, 3rd Season)

Assistant: Thea Ledyard (Evangel University '00, 2nd Season)

Assistant: Jenny Madrid

and then fell in game three, 30-28. When they played Christian Brothers they lost game one 30-19 and game two 30-21 but fought back in game three only to lose 30-28.

SBU now needs to just combine all four matches into one match and results could be outstanding.

IN THE MIAA
