

Prelicensure Nursing Programs

Professional Licensure Disclosure

ASN — Springfield campus | BSN — Bolivar campus | Effective September 2026

This disclosure addresses SBU's Associate of Science in Nursing program in Springfield and its prelicensure Bachelor of Science in Nursing program in Bolivar. Both programs prepare graduates for initial registered-nurse licensure and the NCLEX-RN.

Basis of determinations. SBU's associate and baccalaureate nursing programs are listed by ACEN as accredited, and SBU reports Missouri Board of Nursing approval. The 2025 NCSBN Licensure Survey and current jurisdictional information were used to classify each location. "DOES NOT MEET" is used for Alaska, California, Hawaii, the District of Columbia, and the listed U.S. territories.

Important: A “MEETS” determination addresses educational preparation only and does not guarantee licensure. Applicants must satisfy NCLEX-RN, criminal-history, application, fee, identity, and other jurisdiction-specific requirements. Licensure requirements may change; students should consult the applicable nursing authority before enrolling or relocating.
